

I listen to the KLOVE radio station in my city and it really brightens my day. I listen to it as much as possible and it has changed my life. I am social officer of my dance team and I use the stories I hear on KLOVE in my devotionals to the team.